DOCTOR'S CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH MINUTES
COLLETON COUNTY
1867

After preaching by our beloved brother, J. S. Weeks, the church met in conference. The resolution in regard to each male member to pay three dollars and the female members to pay one dollar per year was withdrawn. The case of Brother J. E. Lyons for not coming was settled by satisfactory acknowledgments. The case of Sister Rebuke Hiott was dismissed. Sister H. Lyons was forgiven for her long absence. Brother J. R. Hiott was forgiven for his long absence. Sister Jane Atkinson was forgiven for her long absence. The Brother J. W. Saunders was appointed a deacon of the Doctor's Creek Church. Then resolved that the deacons keep separate lists of the members and notify delinquent members to fill their seats at the church and that we act in this way independent to committees. Then the church agreed to pay $40 the ensuing year for the support of pastor of the Doctor's Creek Church and $20 to the supply. Then proceeded to call a pastor which call was unanimously extended to Brother J. S. Weeks and the same to Brother Silas Risher as supply. Then the Association letter was read and adopted. Then Brother C. J. Davis made complaint to the church that Brother H. H. Hiott had gone to law with him contrary to Christian order. Brother J. J. Halford appointed to notify Brother Davis to be at our next conference. There being no other business, the church dismissed in order.

J. J. Halford, Church Clerk

After preaching by our beloved brother, J. S. Weeks, the church met in conference. There being nothing on reference from last conference, Sister Margaret Strickland was reported to the church for her long absence from the church and not giving satisfactory reasons for the same. Then resolved to wait on her one month and make her a subject of prayer. Brother H. H. Hiott was reported to the church for saying that a certain promissory which he held against C. J. Davis was to be paid in gold or silver or its equivalent, which proved not to be so. Brother Silas Risher appointed to notify Brother H. H. Hiott to be at our next conference. There being no other business, the church dismissed order.
