MINUTE HIGHLIGHTS

September 9th 2007

President, Bob Williams called the meeting to order and the June Minutes were read and accepted. The Treasurers report was approved with an ending balance of $2,017.18.

A motion was made to purchase the Mizpah Book for the Research Center and said motion was seconded and approved.

The Speaker today was James “Jim” Way from Dorchester, SC. Mr. Way spent much of his time the last eight years compiling 4 Volumes of books cataloging residents of Dorchester, SC. He titled the books Dorchester, Our Homes, Our People, Our Stories. These books are not for sale but have been placed in the Library. Jim’s talk was informative and included stories of what life was like in “the good old days”.

Bob Williams gifted Jim Way with a membership and a copy of Saddle Soldiers by William Stokes.

The meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be held on Oct 14 2007.

Those attending were William and Jane DeWitt, Temperona Youmans Thompson, Myrtle Hilton, Doris Lucas, Bob Stets, Victoria Tuten, Jim Way, Justin Rowe, Mary Beth Rowe, Joyce Breland, Larry and Marsha Ulmer, Jackie Roberts, John Hiott, Bobbie Hiott, Bob Williams, Judy Ballard, Anne Austin, Chelsey Reeves and Deborah Toa.

LINDER FAMILY INFORMATION

Generation One

1. Ludwig "Lewis" Linder, born c. 1708 in Germany, died Apr 3 1758 in Orangeburgh Township, SC, buried Apr 5 1758 in Church of Redeemer, Orangeburg, SC. Arrived in South Carolina during 1735 from Germany. Died at the home of the Rev. John Giessendaner and was buried in the churchyard, Church of the Redeemer (Episcopal). He had several other children they were Daniel, Lewis, Jacob, Mary, Elizabeth, Margaret and Katherina.

The information listed below was mailed to Myrtle Linder, a member of the Old St. Bartholomew Genealogical Chapter and later appeared in The Linder Quarterly No. 127 Winter of 2001: A Chronology of the Early Life of Ludwig Linder -- On Thursday, August 09 2001, while stumbling through a huge file called "Goelzer Production", I came upon a family group sheet for a Ludwig Linder, whose wife was Mary Magdalena Jaque and who had a son Johann Daniel Linder born 20 August 1730 in Mimbach, Saar, Germany. The group sheet carries the notation by my German genealogist, Dr. Bernd Goelzer, "The married couple and their two sons disappear from Mimbach records after 1735. They probably moved away or emigrated." Mimbach is situated in the Saar, between Saarbrucken and Zweibrucken in Germany close to the French border. A Chronology of Ludwig Linder follows:

1706: On April 25, Johann Ludwig Linder was born to Mickel Linder and his wife, Marie Catharina Unknown of St. Wendel. The couple was married in 1698 and had two other daughters.

1712: On January 20, Nickel Linder, Ludwig Linder's father, dies in Mimbach.

1720: On November 14, Ludwig's mother, Maria Catharina Linder, a widow with a son and three daughters, marries Christoph Welcker, a potter.

1728: On February 24, Ludwig Linder, a potter on Mimbach, married Maria Magdalena Jaque, daughter of the deceased Ulrich Jaque of Mimbach.

1728: On November 7, a son, Johann Barthel Linder was born to Ludwig and Maria Magdalena Linder. Johann Barthel probably died on the way to Carolina, since he is not recorded as arriving in Carolina.

1730: On August 20, a son, Johann Daniel Linder, was born to Ludwig and Maria Magdalena Linder in Mimbach. Johann Daniel survived the trip to Carolina.

1731: Ludwig Linder signs an Oath of Allegiance in Mimbach.

1733: On 26 December, Anna Gertruda, the third child of Ludwig Linder and his wife, Maria Magdalena Linder, is born. On January 12, 1735, a one year old daughter supposedly named Anna Catharina dies. Anna Gertrude and Anna Catharina is the same child.

1735: Ludwig Linder, his wife, Maria Magdalena Linder, with sons Johann Daniel and Johann Bartel leave for Carolina. The family disappears from the rolls of the Reformed Church of Mimbach. Johann Barthel, about 7 years old, dies on the trip to Carolina. They probably came on the ship "Oliver", which eventually reached Philadelphia from Carolina on August 26 1735.

1735: Mimbach Reformed Church records show that the following men immigrated to Carolina: Nickel Seebach with wife and two children and Philipp Zimmerman with wife and six children.

1737: Mimbach Reformed Church records show that the following men immigrated to Carolina: Barthel Remy with wife and two children; Adam Diehl with wife and son; Hans Georg Hoch with wife and daughter; Frederich Keifer and wife. The above four families were landed in Philadelphia September 24, 1737 on the ship "Virtuous Grace".

1770: Later records from the Mimbach Reformed Church show that a new church building was built in 1770.

1772: On May 26, Michael Linder, blacksmith of Mimbach, son of Jacob Linder and Anna Maria Unknown of Wolfersheim married Maria Elizabetha Goltzer, daughter of the deceased Heinrich Goltzer and Susanna Maria Unknown.

1773: On July 24, Philipp Jacob Linder was born to Michael and Maria Elizabetha Linder. Philipp Jacob Linder, My immigrant ancestor, arrived in Philadelphia on the ship "Fair American" in 1791.

Summary: The match of the European and the American Ludwig Linder seems to be excellent for the following reasons:

A. Ludwig Linder was born 25 April, 1706 in Mimbach, Germany. The South Carolina Ludwig was born c 1708.

B. Mary Magdalena Jaque married Ludwig on 24 February, 1728 at Mimbach. In South Carolina she was listed Mary Magdalene.

C. Johann Daniel Linder was born 20 August, 1730 at Mimbach. South Carolina records list him as Daniel, born about 1732.

D. Goelzer's statement "The married couple and two sons disappear from Mimbach after 1735" indicates they emigrated.

E. The church records of the Mimbach church show that there was a group of parishioners who also immigrated to Carolina. There is quite possibly a connection between the Philipp and Ludwig Linder lines in Mimbach or Walfersheim, but this will need to be studied further. The connection, quite probably, is before the church records were started in 1696. He married

Mary Magdalene Jaque, married Feb 24 1728. Mary: Daughter of Ulrich Jaque of Mimbach.

Generation Four

24. Catherine Linder, born Aug 4 1783 in Orangeburg County, SC, died Sep 13 1857 in Branchville, Orangeburg County, SC, buried in Rhoad Family Cemetery, Branchville, SC. According to information received from Nina Pearl Walters Barrett, the birth date of Catherine Linder McAlhany was Apr 08 1783. After the death of Robert McAlhany, Catherine Linder McAlhany remarried John Rhoad and is buried with him at the Rhoad Cemetery. The Rhoad Family Cemetery is located in Orangeburg County on Highway 210, 3 miles from Branchville, SC. She married (1) Robert McAlhany, married Mar 10 1808 in Branchville, Orangeburg County, SC, born about 1780 in Branchville, Orangeburg County, SC, (son of Joseph McAlhany and Wife's Name Unknown) died Mar 26 1816 in Branchville, Orangeburg County, SC. Robert: Robert McAlhany was a trustee of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Orangeburg District of South Carolina. Two and 5/8 acres of land was granted by George Hartzog to the trustees on January 13 1811, for a place of worship for the use of the members of the church. Land was part of 417 acres originally granted Tobias Hartzog. On August 10 1814 Robert McAlhany sold to Nathaniel Byrd, Jr a plantation of 185 1/2 acres and part of a tract of 426 acres granted John Rhodes and Robert McAlhany. The land was bound by land of Nathaniel Byrd and John Rhodes. Robert McAlhany died Mar 26 1816 leaving Catherine Linder McAlhany pregnant with son, Robert Berry McAlhany and 6 children under 12. This information is recorded in The Smoak Family Manuscript Collection. She married (2) John Rhoad, married May 28 1818, born about 1768, died Feb 28 1830, buried in Rhoad Family Cemetery, Branchville, SC, occupation Methodist Minister/Farmer.

Benjamin Barnett McAlhany was a consistent member of what is now the Sardis Methodist Church of Branchville, SC for over 50 years. His name is listed in the 1849 Sardis Methodist Church Roll as Benj. "McAlhaney" spelled with an "e". The only other McAlhany listed on the church roll at that time was Matilda McAlhany. Inhabitants of the area held religious services outside under the trees prior to the American Revolution. After the war, a little log church referred to as the "meeting house" was constructed. In 1839 a framed church replaced the log structure. Benjamin Barnett McAlhany is buried in McAlhany Cemetery in Branchville, Orangeburg County, South Carolina; he is the patriarch of The McAlhany Cemetery and is related by blood or marriage to most everyone buried there. Six of his 8 sons served in the Civil War. Benjamin Barnett McAlhany is listed in the 1850 Census of the Orangeburgh District, SC as a planter with a real estate value of 500 dollars with 11 people in household and 4 slaves. He married Elizabeth Bozard, married about 1833 in Orangeburg County, SC, born Jul 29 1814 in Orangeburg County, SC, (daughter of Henry Bozard and Catherine Fersner) died Mar 05 1892 in Orangeburg County, SC, buried in McAlhany Cemetery, Branchville, SC.
