MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

January 11, 2015

Meeting called to order by Dr. David Hiott. Minutes and Treasurer's Report Given and approved. Dr. Hiott introduced Phyllis Hughes and Christine Rice from the Upper Dorchester Historical Society. They are working at the Court House to preserve thousands of historical documents relevant to Dorchester County. Christine Rice will speak at February meeting to inform us more about this work.

Dr. Hiott introduced guest speaker Ms. Wevonneda Minis. Ms Minis is a genealogist who formerly wrote for the Charleston Post and Courier. She lives in Charleston and also spoke at the National Genealogy meeting in Charleston. Her topic Genealogical Resources. She spoke on materials such as personal diaries, letters, first person accounts, and local histories. She gave many examples of how these sources have helped in her personal research. She covered birth, marriage and death records and extended family members. Ms Minis was a very interesting and informative speaker.

Meeting adjourned.

Those in attendance: Julie Bell, Joe and Jo Ellen Bishop, Jo Anne Boone, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Bobbi and Dr. David Hiott, Matt Hiott, Phyllis Hughes, Kaye Hull, Joye M. Lawson, Wevonneda Minis, Christine Rice, Libby Steadman, and Larry Ulmer.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

February 8, 2015

Meeting called to order by Dr. Hiott.
Minutes read and approved.
Sarah Miller, History professor at USC Salkehatchie introduced guest speaker, Christine Rice.
Christine Rice was a senior student at USC when she became an intern with the Dorchester County Historical Society. Her assignment was to find a problem, solve it, and implement the solution. With funding from the Dorchester County Historical Society and grants, and utilizing high school students and other volunteers, she has been able to digitize 11,000 documents of historical significance. These are now available by computer to local researchers. These documents include Dorchester Eagle, St. George Council Records for Harleyville, Ridgeville, Reevesville, and St. George. Dorchester County Marriage Certificates, Dorchester County Historical Homes Survey, Real Estate Documents and the William Wamer Collection. Original Documents are stored in a climate controlled fireproof room. Anyone wishing to visit can make an appointment by calling (843-563-0053). The Dorchester County Archives and History Center is located at 101 Ridge St., St. George, SC 19477. This was a very interesting presentation on the preserving and availability of historical documents.
Dr. Hiott announced that Ms. Dot Glover would be guest speaker at our March Meeting.
Those in attendance: Joe and Jo Ellen Bishop, Betty Black, JoAnne Boone, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, James and Paulette Farrell, Dot Glover, Bobbi and Dr. David Hiott, Joye M. Lawson, Dr. Sarah Miller, Libby Steadman, Ray and Elva Thomas, Heather Tuten, Victoria Tuten and Larry Ulmer.
