MEETING HIGHLIGHTS January 14, 2018

President, Joyce Breland called meeting to order. Minutes for November meeting given and accepted. No meeting took place month of December. Larry Ulmer presented Treasurer's Report. Next meeting will be Feb 11 2018. Ms Clare Mizell, Director of Archives and Heritage Museum of Dorchester County, SC will be the guest speaker.

Introduction of today's Guest Speaker: Ms. Elizabeth Laney, Plantation Historian.

Subject was Reflections on Early Walterboro.

Ms. Laney's research taken from Eliza Bergwin Clitherall papers which can be found at the University of North Carolina and can be downloaded on line. Eliza Bergwin was born in 1784 died 1856. She was the daughter of John Bergwin and Eliza Bush. She married Dr. George Campbell Clitherall and had six children. Their family lived in Belleville and Walterboro and later moved to Alabama. Eliza Bergwin Clitherall is buried in Mobile, Alabama.

Walterboro was founded in 1783. It was a summer resort consisting of log houses covered by clapboards. Society was plain. Food was sent in from the plantation and shared by several families. There was a market shed with a large overhead, which served as a meeting house. Some family names mentioned were Fishburne, Postell and Fraser. Ms. Laney told of many amusing family incidents and how times have drastically changed. Presentation was very interesting and enthusiastically presented.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

February 11, 2018

Ms. Joyce Breland, Pres. called meeting to order.

Introduction of today's speaker, Ms Clara Mizell, Director of Archives and The Heritage Museum of Dorchester County, SC.

The museum opened in January of 2017. It has much to offer for those interested in local history. It contains the following rooms: Fossils, Native American, Colonial, Rice and Indigo, Civil War Letters, Veterans, General Store, and Industrial. The museum is located at 101 Ridge Street, St. George, SC. We enjoyed her interested description of these rooms and all the information she presented.

Dr. David Hiott announced that Ms Libby Steadman would be our guest speaker for our March meeting.

Those in attendance were: Julie Bell, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Paulette Farrell, Bobbie and David Hiott, John Hiott, Matt Hiott, Ted Kinard, Jim Kiser, Elaine Kiser, Joy Lawson, Hollie Phillips, Victoria Tuten, and Larry Ulmer.

Meeting adjourned.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

March 11 2018

Meeting called to order by Archivist, Dr. David Hiott.

Dr. David Hiott introduced our speaker of the day, Elizabeth Steadman. Ms Steadman is a retired Colonel, United States Army, a Nurse-practitioner and a cardio-vascular Nurse, MUSC. Her topic "Scot-Irish Migration to SC 1772."

John Knox led the Protestant Reformation in Scotland in the mid-1500's. Fleming Smith led a migration to Northern Ireland as a result of atrocities against Protestants. Between 1720 and 1776, 250,000 left Ulster, Ireland and came to America. Between 1750 and 1775 there was an influx of Irish to South Carolina. South Carolina had cheap and available land, and religious tolerance. In 1772 Rev. William Martin headed 5 shiploads of Scots-Irish Presbyterians. Some of the names associated with this group are McClintock, Poddan, Lowry, Dicky, Brown, Anderson, Miller, Dunlop, and Thompson. Many United States Presidents are descended from Scots-Irish. They have millions of ancestors today. Ms. Steadman was particularly interested in John Caldwell, one of
