MEETING HIGHLIGHTS April 14 2019

Joyce Breland, President brought meeting to order. Larry Ulmer presented Treasurer's Report. Joyce Breland introduced our speaker of the day, Mr. Milton Harden. Mr. Harden retired from USC – Salkehatchie. His topic "The Jacksons of Charles Town, Pon Pon, and Jacksonborough". First Jackson's name was "Originall Jackson". Originall Jackson, a carpenter by trade arrived on ship "Carolina" about 1670. He with other English settlers cleared and planted land on Daniel Island until 1673. He received a land grant of 100 acres in 1675. In 1676 he was conveyed by John Faulkner 92 acres of land. In 1680 he and his wife, Millicent donated 4 acres of land to build St. Philips Church (where St. Michaels church is now located). Capt. John Jackson, son of Originall Jackson (died 1723). He was granted 400 acres of land in 1701. At some point the Jackson Family had received grants for a total of 1,700 acres. The old town of Jacksonborough was laid out between 1730 and 1740 from lands granted to John Jackson. It was the seat of Colleton District from 1799 to 1822. It was the Provisional Capital of the state while Charleston was under siege during closing months of American Revolution.

This was a wonderful power point presentation by Milton W. Harden. You will find more information on this presentation by visiting Colleton Genealogy Research Center.

Meeting Adjourned:

Those attending were: Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Bob Connelly, Milton Harden, John Hiott, David and Bobbi Hiott, Matt Hiott, Pat Johnson, Joy Lawson, Betty Jane Miller, Hollie Phillips, Victoria and Heather Tuten, Larry and Marsha Ulmer.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

May 05 2019

Matt Hiott called the meeting to order.

Guest Speaker: Mr. Matt Hiott

Topic: Early History of Bethel Presbyterian Church and People of Pon Pon.

The church was founded in 1728 by Archibald Stobo. Archibald Stobo originally tried to establish a church in Panama however his mission failed. Stobo's ship was anchored in Charleston, SC and while he was ashore a hurricane sank the ship. Stobo stayed in Charleston and established several churches in the Low Country. His first church was very small and was replaced in 1746 by a forty foot square structure. In 1821 a chapel was built in Walterboro, SC and the congregation then moved to Walterboro. In 1879 the church was destroyed by a tornado and in 1886 the church was destroyed by fire. The church at present was built in 1969.

The oldest existing records can be found in a ledger dated from 1735-1758. Names mentioned in the ledger are Andrews, Boggs, Buer, Crole, Donnon, Farley, Hayne, Jackson, Livingston, Oswald, Martin and Campbell.

A special room at the church has been set up by Dr. Hiott for those wishing to do further research.

Meeting Adjourned.

Those attending were: Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Bobbi Hiott, Henry Hiott, Matt and Katie Hiott, Pat Johnson, Joy M. Lawson, Byron Lee, Sarah Miller, and Moultrie Plowden.

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Matt Hiott extended a welcome to members and guests attending Colleton Genealogy Society's Annual Workshop.

June 01 2019 cont'

Film entitled The Burnt Church and Exploration of Pon Pon Chapel was presented.

The film of the history of Pon Pon Chapel was made by the Colleton Historical and Preservation Society.

Colleton County was divided into ten parishes. Established in 1725 by an act of the General Assembly, Pon Pon Chapel of Ease was one of two churches serving St. Bartholomew's Parish after the Yemassee War (1715) The chapel was located on Parker's Ferry Road. The first structure, was wood, but was replaced in 1754 by a brick structure. Unfortunately, the brick structure burned around 1801. It was rebuilt between 1821 and 1822 and was in use until 1832. The congregation moved to Walterboro to St. Jude's. The Chapel's historical significance is due to John Wesley preaching two sermons on April 24 1737 and to the cemetery where Congressman Aedanus Burke and O'Bryan Smith are buried. It was listed on the National Registry January 05 1972.

Christie Slocum from the Historical and Preservation Society answered questions and told of future plans for the site.

Personal Research was made available in our Research Center after the presentation.

Those Attending: Julie Bell, Cathy Branham, Joyce Breland, Bobbi Hiott, Katie Hiott, Matt Hiott, Deloris Layne, Kenny Layne, Christie Slocum and Larry Ulmer.
